

ANTI-RAGGING POLICY DOCUMENT

GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE BHADERWAH

In pursuance to the Judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India dated 08.05.2009 in Civil Appeal No. 887/2009, the UGC had notified "Regulations on curbing the menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009". The regulations are available at www.ugh.ac.in. these regulations are mandatory for all higher educational institutions of India. In reference to these regulations Government degree College Bhaderwah strictly adheres to the rules and regulations mentioned in the document and believe in the application of the same in the college campus with the intention that ruining and harassing of students may put a disastrous end to otherwise bright careers of our nation.

The college in this backdrop constituted a Anti –Raging Committee which spread awareness among the students and acquaint them with the knowledge of Anti-ragging measures and the threats thereof. In this regard students are educated about the Supreme Court/UGC guidelines and the punitive measures they might face if the students complain of ragging within the campus.

SAY NO TO RAGGING

As the college follows the Supreme Court and UGC guidelines, the basic measures to be taken by the college are as per their directions:

1. Constitution of anti-ragging committee, anti-ragging squad, setting up of Anti-Ragging Cell and adequate publicity for these measures through various media.
2. A clear mention of anti-ragging warning in the institution's prospectus and information booklets /brochures shall be ensured.
3. Preparation of e-admission booklet or brochure, e-leaflets of your institutions giving detailed guidance to admitted students in case of ragging, instead of prinVhard copy.

4. Display of banners/posters at conspicuous places in the campus to create awareness on anti-ragging measures amongst students (soft copy of the posters attached are also available on UGC website www.ugc.ac.in & www.antiragging.in)
5. Updation of websites of institutions with the complete address and contact details of nodal officers related to anti-ragging committee.
6. An online undertaking in every academic year to be submitted by each student and every parent, in compliance with the UGC Regulations and its 2'd Amendment regarding submission of undertaking.
7. UGC has notified 3'd Amendment in UGC Regulations on 29th June, 2016 to expand the definition of ragging by including the following: "

Defining Ragging....

(il Any act of physical or mental abuse (including bullying and exclusion) targeted at another student (fresher or otherwise) on the ground of colour, race, religion, caste, ethnicity, gender (including transgender), sexual orientation, appearance, nationality, regional origins, linguistic identity, place of birth, place of residence or economic background."

8. Installation of CCTV cameras at vital points.

The UGC guideline also reads "It is once again brought to your kind notice that ragging is a criminal offence and UGC has framed regulations on curbing the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions in order to prohibit, prevent and eliminat.-th" ""or.ge of ragging. These regulations are mandatory and all institutions are required to take necessary steps for its implementation in toto including the monitoring mechanism' Any violation of these regulations will be viewed seriously. If any institution fails to take adequate steps to prevent ragging or does not act in accordance with these Regulations or fails to punish perpetrators of incidents of ragging suitably, it will attract punitive action against itself by the UGC".

The college will make it public and manifest that the ragging is an evil by way of adequate publicity through various mediums; constitution of Anti-Ragging committee and Anti-Ragging squad, setting up of Anti-Raggrng Cell, installing CCTV cameras at vital points, Anti-Ragging workshops and seminar' updating all websites with nodal officers 'complete details, alarm bells etc. Regular interaction and counseling with the students, identification of trouble-triggers and mention of Anti-Ragging warning in the institution's E-prospectus and E-information booklets/brochures must be ensured. Surprise inspection of hostels, students, accommodation, canteens, rest cum recreational rooms, toilets, bus-stands must be carried out & Anti-Ragging posters must be displayed at all prominent places like Admission centre, Departments, Library, canteen, Hostel, Common facilities etc.

Within this apropos reference the college has constituted a committee on Anti-Ragging and the following members are working therein. These committee members will also act as helpline squad for the same. Students will contact any of the members in case they face any ragging threat. :
