

Govt. Degree College Bhaderwah

Department of Political Science in collaboration with NSS, NCC units and IQAC organized a seminar on CHUNAVI PATHSHALA. The programme started with the welcome address by the Prof. Sanjay Kumar HOD Political Science. He highlighted the importance of Chunavi Pathshala and also took the pledge on anti-drug along with the students. The main aim of the seminar was to facilitate voter's registration for its eligible members who are not yet registered and to familiarize participants about EVM, VVPAT and educate them about robustness of EVM and integrity of the electoral process using EVMs. The main resource person on the occasion was Prof. S. S. Parihar HOD Economics, who delivered a detailed lecture on the Chunavi Pathshala. There were nine student participants in the seminar, who elaborated their speeches on right to vote, democracy, Fundamental Rights and Fundamental Duties, Universal Adult Franchise. Besides, there were four students who participated in the drawing and painting competition. Students who participated in the programme were Suhani Kotwal, Sundus, Sohail Majeed, Mehlika, Heena Rubani, Taskeen Ahmed, Taranjeet Kour, Radhika Raina, Jaseeb Ahmed and Akshay Raina. The programme was attended by more than 150 students of the college. There was also a prize distribution function. The first prize bagged by Jaseeb Ahmed.

Other prominent were present there, Prof. S. S. Parihar, Prof. Sanjay Kumar, Prof. Pinki Kotwal, Prof. Deep Chand, Prof. Rahul Uttam, Prof. Bipen Sir, Prof. Arjun Kotwal, Dr. Banti Kumar and Prof. Pervaiz Ahmed Parraay.

Light refreshment was served to the participants and the staff. The formal Vote of Thanks was presented by Dr. Banti Kumar.